Specifications and Guidelines for Submitting Case Studies & Teaching Notes
ICHRIE Johnson & Wales Case Studies Competition & Publication Series

General Text Requirements for Case Studies

A. All case studies and teaching notes must be prepared in English and free of grammatical, spelling and/or punctuation errors. Please make sure your files are thoroughly edited and proof read before submission. The editors are not responsible for correcting grammatical/spelling and general English language. Case Studies and teaching notes that do not conform to these specifications will be automatically rejected and returned to their authors.

B. All case studies, teaching notes and related material should be submitted through the online review and submission system, which is available at http://scholarworks.umass.edu/ichrie_case_study_competition/

C. Do not include author(s) details and/or information that can identify the author(s) in any of the files submitted for the Case Study Competition. This should be done in order to enable the blind review of the case studies. Case studies including the name of the author(s) and/or other information that can identify the author(s) will not be eligible to enter the Case Study Competition.

D. Case studies and teaching notes should be single spaced, Times New Roman, font size 10pt, including tables, figures and references.

E. Please use the lead author’s last name as the file name.

F. Specifications:
   • Prepare your paper using Microsoft Word for Windows 6.0 or higher only.
   • Set the page margins to 2.54cm or 1in (top and bottom) and 3.17cm or 1.25in (left and right).
   • Indent the first sentence of each paragraph with 1/2 inch and align text left.
   • Single-spaced within each paragraph but double-spaced between paragraphs. Do not number the pages but make sure the pages are in the correct order. Pages will be numbered by the editors.
   • Use Times New Roman, font size 10pt.
   • If the files do not follow these specifications, they will be automatically rejected and returned to its author(s)!

G. All case studies must be accompanied by a short abstract of not more than 100 words and a list of no more than six key words, which define the subject matter. (See sample for the locations of the abstract and key words on the next page.)

H. For other details, please see the sample format attached.
Abstract

Begin your copy here. Indent the first sentence of each paragraph 1/2 inch and align text left. Use Single space within each paragraph, but double space between paragraphs. Do not number the pages, but make sure the pages are in the correct order. Pages will be numbered by the editors. Authors must use “Times New Roman”, font size 10.

Key Words: identify and list key words (maximum of 6) which represent the content of your CASE STUDY.

Introduction

The case study title, author names (full names only; titles, e.g. Assistant Professor and degrees, e.g. Ph.D. should not be included), and authors’ names and affiliations must be flushed to the right as shown above. The case study and teaching note must be written in the third person and all submissions must be in English and authors should seek to use straightforward declarative sentences, making every effort to help the reader understand the concepts presented. You must not exceed 8 pages in total, this is a firm limit.

When the case study and teaching note are completed, submit the file through the online review and submission system that is found at http://scholarworks.umass.edu/ichrie_case_study_competition/. Make sure that page margins are set to 2.54cm or 1in (top and bottom) and 3.17cm or 1.25in (left and right).

Tables and figures must appear within the text (not at the end of the text). Tables and figures should be numbered sequentially—e.g. Table 1, Table 2, Table 3, etc., —and they should bear a title (with appropriate upper and lower case letters) which explain their contents. For example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Table 1</th>
<th>Profile of Typical Travel and Tourism Students</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Profile</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sex</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Male</td>
<td>128</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Female</td>
<td>172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>300</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Appendices should appear at the end of the article after the list of references.

References

In the text, references are cited using the author/date style following the APA Publication Manual, e.g. for single authors (Leren, 1982) or multiples up to six authors (Jeong & Lambert, 1999; Järvelä et al. 1999). Direct citations should always be placed in the text and followed by the exact reference and page number. For example “the French trade and industry ministers ... announced new financing to develop Web sites that will encourage exports and to help small and medium-sized companies participate online” (Johnson, 1998:213). The reference list, placed at the end of the text, must be single-spaced in alphabetical order of authors and 10 point font size. A referenced article should contain all authors’ names, title of article, name of publication, volume and number, inclusive page numbers and year of publication. Note the use of italics rather than underlining. A referenced book should list author name(s), title of the book, publisher, place of publication, year of publication. References must be listed at the end of the case study. List the authors’ names exactly as written in the source cited. Use no abbreviations. See examples below:
