This section includes Organizational Diagrams of:

- International Council of Scientific Unions
- Typical National Academy of Sciences
- Relations among UN Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), Intergovernmental Oceanographic Commission (IOC), International Congress of Scientific Unions (ICSU) and Scientific Committee on Oceanographic Research (SCOR)
- Relations among International Telecommunications Union (ITU), Committee on Space Research (COSPAR), and IUCAF
- US National Academy of Sciences and National Research Council
International Council of Scientific Unions

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

- xx National Members (1 vote each) (typically the National Academy of Sciences)
- xx International Union Members (3 votes each) (International Scientific Unions in Particular Disciplines)

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- President
- Secretary
- Past President
- Treasurer
- 4 Vice Presidents
- 20 elected members

SECRETARIAT

SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEES

INTER-UNION COMMISSIONS

SPECIAL COMMITTEES

PERMANENT SERVICES

NATIONAL ASSOCIATES

other national institutes or science associations

SCIENTIFIC ASSOCIATES

regional science academies cross-disciplinary groupings
UNESCO, IOC, ICSU and SCOR

UNESCO Assembly
(representatives of all member states)

INTERGOVERNMENTAL OCEANOGRAPHIC COMMISSION

provides scientific advice

SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE ON OCEANOGRAPHIC RESEARCH
(30 National Oceanographic Research Committees)

ICSU
US National Academy of Sciences and National Research Council

NATIONAL ACADEMY OF SCIENCES (1863)
individual scientists elected by current members

President of N.A.S.
(elected by members)

National Research Council
(1916)
members appointed by President of National Academy of Sciences

Office of Foreign Secretary,
National Academy of Sciences duties include coordination of US participation in ICSU and its committees and commissions

<end>