. . . attendance was still poor, ranging from 0-4 people except for the eat healthy event, where 15 people stopped, grabbed free food, and kept going.
Poetry month 2017 activities
Finals week relaxation stations
Some things just didn’t work
2017-18 – more interactive displays and activities
Feedback wall

- What was your favorite book as a kid?
- If you could have any pet, real or imaginary, what would it be?
Crafty fun
Interactive and seasonal work well together
Adapt
Connect pop ups with events
If you can’t pop up, promote campus events
Shared staff/student interest – involve clubs, human resources
Ask faculty to give credit for attendance
Build on successes
Lessons learned:

• Have more dogs
• Do more of whatever engages
• Capitalize on campus connections
• Post pictures of students enjoying interactive displays (and dogs)
• Let go of good ideas that don’t work
