Blueprint

Of a successful and effective residency structure for universities

Our outline for today

- ◎ What does a successful residency look like?
- ◎ Why should institutions care?
- ◎ Challenges
- ◎ Residency benchmarks (3,12,18 months)
- ◎ Importance of mentorship

A successful residency includes:

Pre-hire conversations

Same page

Why you are hiring a (diversity) resident

Clear mission and purpose

AU: Competitive for a tenure-track

What are your goals?

Are they feasible?

Can you realistically support these goals?

What resources do you already have in place?

Why should insitutions care?

ALA Members by Race or Family Origin % of members self-identifying

	2014	2017
American Indian or Alaskan Native	1.1	1.2
Asian	3.5	3.6
Black or African American	4.3	4.4
Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander	0.3	0.2
White	87.1	86.7
Other	3.7	4.0

When asked “How do you describe your ethnicity?” in 2014, 3.9% responded “Hispanic or Latino.” In 2017, 4.7% responded “Hispanic or Latino.”

“Increasing numbers and percentages of Black and Hispanic students are attending college. Between 2000 and 2015, the percentage of college students who were Black rose from 11.7 to 14.1 percent, and the percentage of students who were Hispanic rose from 9.9 to 17.3 percent”

Why should institutions care?

Recruitment & Retention

Institutional
Culture

When the resident librarian succeeds, you succeed!

Administrative considerations prior to residency job being posted

Pre-hire

- Position description input
- Clear job parameters and flexibility
- Professional growth
- Documentation

Documentation

- Responsibilities
- Expectations of research
- Service (within university and nationally)
- Professional development

The background of the slide is a light blue color with a complex network pattern. This pattern consists of numerous small, light gray circles (nodes) connected by thin, light gray lines (edges). Some nodes are solid gray, while others are hollow circles. The connections form a dense, interconnected web that fills the entire background.

Challenges

Structure of the residency

What are your organizational needs?

What are your gaps?

How can a resident librarian gain experience from this new skilled labor?

What can your organization gain
from new skilled labor?

Will it be rotational?

Where will the professional growth
be?

Mentor and coordinator roles

Mentor

Acquainted with institutional memory

Knowledge of organizational culture

Advises on professional trajectory

Research & Scholarship

Service

Confidentiality!

Coordinator

Long & Short term
plans for residency

Identify needs of organization (and how resident librarian can gain experience)

Identify gaps in organization

Identify possible
projects

Importance of mentor figures

- ◎ Build strong rapport
- ◎ Mutual trust
- ◎ Instills confidence in new librarian
- ◎ Peer mentoring

If I was a coordinator...

- ◎ Post hire (goals and support)
- ◎ Choose one or two areas to emphasize throughout residency
- ◎ Set priorities with resident librarian and follow them
- ◎ Take your role seriously!

Being proactive as a resident

Ask for opportunities

Professional Development

Advocate for yourself

Residency benchmark highlights

3 months

- ◎ Orientation
- ◎ Institutional memory
- ◎ Identify short & long term goals

12 months

- ◎ Near solid identification of research agenda
- ◎ Identify university service work

18 months

- ◎ Draft research and teaching philosophy statements
- ◎ Update CV

Thanks!
