University of Massachusetts Occasional Papers in Linguistics

Special Issue:
Psycholinguistics

Volume 9

Edited by T. Daniel Seely

1986

We are happy to present the (long awaited) ninth volume of the University of Massachusetts Occasional Papers series. This special issue includes papers covering a wide range of areas in psycholinguistics: acquisition (see Finer & Roeper and Goodluck), ambiguity resolution and the role of discourse in processing (see Ferreira, Malt, and O'Brien & Myers), the identification of phonemes and syllables (see Cowan, Braine, & Leavitt), and the establishment of referential dependencies (see Frazier & Clifton).

We thank all those involved in the reviewing process: Emmon Bach, Toni Borowsky, Lyn Frazier, Al Huettnner, Charlie Jones, David Lebeaux, Scott Meyers, Barbara Partee, David Pesetsky, and Tom Roeper. Special thanks to the contributors for their patience!

T. Daniel Seely
