Fourth International Conference on Igbo Studies:
A Tribute to Don Ohadike

Conference announcement posted at <http://www.aswadiaspora.org/igbo2006.html>.

Venue: Howard University, Washington, D.C., March 31 to April 1, 2006.

Theme: The Igbo and Its Diaspora: Interrogating Culture, History, and Identity.

The 4th International Conference on Igbo Studies highlights the central role of culture in Igbo life, history and identity. In choosing this theme we hope to foster contributions that explore the concept of Igbo culture, history, and identity in varying and transforming ways. Papers exploring various disciplinary and inter-disciplinary approaches are particularly welcome. We also welcome contributions that examine the formation and transformation of Igbo culture and identities at individual, group, national, and transnational levels in Africa and the Diaspora. Contributions should strengthen existing dialogue on Igbo Studies. Submissions from graduate students and community activists are welcome. The proceedings of the conference will be published in 2007.
