Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture

Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, Scholars-in Residence Fellowship Program for the 2000-2001 The Schomburg Center is a unit of the New York Public Library's Research Libraries. The Fellowship Program encompasses projects in African, Afro-American, and Afro-Caribbean history and culture, with an emphasis on African Diasporan Studies and Biography, Social History and African American Culture. Fellows are required to be in full-time residence at the Center during the six- or 12-month award period. They are expected to utilize the Center's resources extensively, participate in scheduled seminars, colloquia and luncheons, review and critique papers presented at these forums, and prepare a report on work accomplished at the end of their residency. The fellowship stipend is $25,000 for six months and up to $50,000 for twelve months. Application deadline is January 15, 2000. Additional information is available or (212)491-2228.
