Travels with Tooy:
History, Memory, and the African American Imagination

Richard Price's Travels with Tooy received the the 2009 Gordon K. and Sybil Lewis Memorial Award for Caribbean Scholarship, for the best book, in any language and in any discipline, about the Caribbean. In 2008, this work was awarded the Victor Turner Prize in Ethnographic Writing. The Society for Humanistic Anthropology bestows that award in honor of the late Victor Turner, who devoted his career to seeking a language that would reopen anthropology to the human subject, and the prize is given in recognition of an innovative book that furthers this project.
