<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Item Type</th>
<th>book;article</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Authors</td>
<td>Maddox, Donald</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Download date</td>
<td>2024-06-24 14:37:36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Link to Item</td>
<td>https://hdl.handle.net/20.500.14394/23003</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Semiotics of Deceit

THE PATHELIN ERA

Donald Maddox

With a new English Prose translation of Maistre Pierre Pathelin
by ALAN E. KNIGHT

Lewisburg
Bucknell University Press
London and Toronto: Associated University Presses
Extensive critical study of the late fifteenth-century comic masterpiece Maistre Pierre Pathelin focuses on the narrative and discursive aspects of deceit found throughout the play. In the initial chapter narratological analyses show how the anonymous playwright wove the intricate intrigue from several clever variants of the "deceiver-deceived" paradigm widespread in folktales and in Old French fabliaux. Subsequent chapters take up the elaborate figures of deceit derived from medieval proverbs, the rhetoric of portraiture, and the intertextual evocations of the woodcuts that illustrate the late medieval Arts of Dying – the Ars moriendi. Also analyzed are configurations of deceit in juridical discourse; strategies of delusive manipulation; and deceptive speech acts. The study also includes Alan Knight's admirably lucid and engaging English prose translation of the play.
Contents

Illustrations and Acknowledgments .......................................................... 9
Preface ...................................................................................................... 11
  1. Semiopathelin .................................................................................. 17

Part I. The Narrative Dimension of Deceit

  2. Infrapathelin, the Deceived Deceiver ...................................................... 29

Part II. The Verbal and Semantic Structures of Deceit

  3. Paremiopathelin the Sententious .......................................................... 43
    Excursus: The Three Faces of Logopathelin ........................................... 59
  4. Pathegyrics, or the Subversive Encomium .............................................. 62
  5. Thanatopathelin and the Art of Dying .................................................. 72
  6. Antipathiquelin and the Rhetoric of Torts ............................................ 95
  7. Manipathulin, the Delusive Persuader .................................................. 109
  8. Illocupathelin, Speech Actor .............................................................. 118

Part III. Pathelin and the Discourse of Deceit in Medieval French Drama

Part IV. The Cultural Dimension of Deceit

  10. Ideopathelin: The Signs of the Times ............................................... 157
    Conclusion ....................................................................................... 171

Master Pierre Pathelin, translated by Alan E. Knight ..................................... 173
Appendix: Narrative and Discoursive Semiotics ............................................. 200
Notes .................................................................................................... 206