

University of Massachusetts
Amherst

2014 Update Mtg: Cranberry Station Update

Item Type	article;article
Authors	DeMoranville, Carolyn J
Download date	2026-06-13 22:54:33
Link to Item	https://hdl.handle.net/20.500.14394/8799

Cranberry Station Update 2013

Carolyn DeMoranville
UMass Amherst Cranberry Station

Make sure to sign in out front

- If you are not checked in, your pesticide credits are in jeopardy!

Meeting details

- Agenda has the information of how to view the presentations (starting next week) online
- 2 surveys
  - Yellow – meeting/media
  - White – management practices
- Low cost management factsheet

The hunt for a new plant pathologist

- Interviews will be held in late January and early March
- If you are interested in meeting the candidates and attending their seminars, let me or Hilary know

Who's next??

Station funding 2013d

- State Support – UM >$600,000
- ARS – Hydrology program [Federal]
- Grants (new)
  - $250,600 including $32,000 from grower sources
- Gifts, in-kind, non-cranberry income
  - $2,000 cash, $900 industry support of meeting
  - >$26K in-kind (harvest), sprayer donation, greenhouse donation
  - $14,700 income from extension activities
- Cranberry income $139,430

Thanks to our coffee break sponsors

- Bayer CropScience
- Chemtura Corp.
- Crop Production Services (formerly RASP)
- Dow Agro Sciences
- Dupont
- Helena Chemical
- Nufarm
- Progressive Grower
- Syngenta
- United Phosphorus, Inc.
- Valent

