Who Mentored Whom?: A Conversation About Leadership

Celia Rabinowitz, Keene State College – Sam Boss, Lyndon State College

Our Story

Celia and Sam, directors at public institutions in Vermont and New Hampshire, were paired together and over a year shared regular phone calls and exchanged site visits providing time and space for questions, advice, and sharing ideas.

Why?

- Develops a critical support system
- Connects librarians from different libraries with different experiences
- Allows for open, honest, and direct communication

What Did We Learn?

- What can you expect from a mentor-mentee relationship?
- What are the benefits of working together in this capacity?
