

University of Massachusetts
Amherst

Internet Resources

Item Type	Announcement
Download date	2026-06-10 06:11:34
Link to Item	https://hdl.handle.net/20.500.14394/1605

Internet Resources

The Worldbook African-American Journey: presents a well-produced overview history of Africans in America at: www.worldbook.com/features/blackhistory/index.

The National Park Service's quarterly journal, CRM: Cultural Resources Management, is available in an electronic version at www.cr.nps.gov/crm.

SiteScene is a biweekly review of new websites and other electronic resources in American Studies. Reviews will be posted every two weeks to the main page of the Crossroads American Studies Web at: www.george-town.edu/crossroads/asw.

Ontario Black History Exhibit on the Web: Visit the McCurdy collection -- a virtual exhibit of photographs and text that gives an insight to the lives of some of Ontario's early black settlers. Presented by the Archives of Ontario, in co-operation with the Ontario Black History Society. You can find this exhibit on the Archives of Ontario's website at: www.gov.on.ca/mczcr/archives/mccurdy/mccurdy1.

An Anthology of WPA Slave Narratives and other research resources are available at the University of Virginia's site: xroads.virginia.edu/~HYPER/hypertex.

American Quarterly: the index for this journal from 1975-95 and full text of more recent issues is available at: jhupress.jhu.edu/journals/aq.

Seneca Village: The New York Historical Society tells the history of this African-American village in what is now New York's Central Park at: projects.ilt.columbia.edu/seneca/start.